The woman, with short dark hair and wearing a white button-down shirt, is smiling and looking back at him. They appear to be in a meeting or conversation. There are plants and a window in the background.

Billy Lai

“AIG has the best incentive conference among insurance companies. We have the opportunity to broaden our horizons and meet great agents and share in these valuable experiences. I also appreciate the people and services AIG provides. The flexibility and self-service platforms help me stand out and close deals easily, and the claims service is efficient and reliable. From an agent’s perspective, I feel very confident selling AIG insurance to my clients with all this support.”

Strong underwriting capacity

Ryu, Hong Yeol
Korea

“I first began to work in the insurance industry in 2008 with both hopes and fears about my new job.

I didn’t know what to do and how to do it because it was my first time in the insurance business, but I gradually began to understand general insurance products thanks to the training offered for new joiners. The underwriting training I received every week also helped a lot for me to acquire knowledge about each product.

Having underwriters in the meetings with our customers is also very useful for understanding and meeting customer needs.

This is one of the strong suits AIG has, and the fact that underwriters tend to stay with AIG for a long time, means underwriters also know our customers well, which gives us an advantage over our competitors.

The unique product training and expertise that AIG offers and detailed business plans helped us meet any client and proudly tell them the great things AIG can do for them.

Over the 17 years since partnering with AIG, I have developed and grown, and I firmly believe that I can achieve a lot more with the time I have left with AIG going forward.

I believe that choosing to partner with AIG was the best decision!”

Claims excellence

Kim, Dong Wook
Korea

“I joined back in 2004 and for 21 years now, I have been growing with my teammates on this great journey with AIG.

At first everything was new to me, so I found it a little difficult to get used to being here. But by working together with my colleagues and attending well-prepared training, and above all, getting the trust of my teammates, I was able to reach where I am now.

Working as an insurance agent, I felt firsthand what a noble job it is because insurance can protect families and companies from crisis and it can also help bring happiness to the families of our colleagues. I am very proud of my role as an insurance agent.

I am very much looking forward to the days ahead of us, working and growing together with my teammates and creating a better future. I love AIG.”

“Choosing to partner with AIG was the best decision I could have made for my career when I made the decision to venture into general insurance back in 2000.

They were the strategic partners who helped me see the bigger picture and their counsel has been invaluable. My journey with AIG has shaped me into a problem-solver for my clients where insurance plays a key part of their business planning.
