The Role of Directors and Officers is more onerous

- D&O's carry personal responsibility
 - Not only for their actions
 - But also where they fail to act in certain circumstances

Increased Personal Responsibility

- Can be sued by shareholders, creditors, customers, competitors, employees, and members of the public

Increased Regulation

- Increased regulatory action – actively investigating the affairs of companies and prosecuting where appropriate
 - MACC, SC, etc.
- Cost of legal representation during such matters is significant (regardless of the outcome)

Exposures D & O face

- Securities litigation
- Regulatory actions
- Allegations of misrepresentation
- Employment practices
- HR issues
- Shareholders actions
- Reporting errors
- Inaccurate or inadequate disclosure
- Exceeding authority
- Other breaches of fiduciary duties

CLAIMS MADE OR OCCURRENCE?

D & O Claims-made Policy

- A Claims-made policy is one that is triggered when a claim is made against the Insured during the policy period, regardless of when the wrongful act that gave rise to the claim took place.

WHY PRIVATE COMPANIES DON'T BUY D&O

D&O is only for Public Companies

- We are only a small company
- My company only has a handful of employees
- Who would want to sue a charity organization/ association?

- As a small company, you may be least prepared for legal battle & the ensuing cost, whether it be an employment practices breach or an investigation from a regulator
- Protecting your personal assets

- The Same Laws Apply! E.g. Intellectual Property Infringement

- I don't have D&O risks because I don't have shareholders

- If you're making decisions on behalf of your company, you can be made liable

D&O is only for Public Companies

- I don't need D&O - mine is a family run business
- Business continuity & legacy issues
- 2nd & 3rd generation on board
- Non-family management
- We do not have business elsewhere and no business dealings in US or Europe. We know our employees well & our customers have been with us for decades
- Other exposures you may face besides your employees or customers :
 - Vendors, supplier lawsuits
 - Competitor (unfair trade practices)
- D&O insurance is too expensive!
- Invest in PrivateEdge now!

Percentage of private companies sued by :

- Customers
- Vendors/Suppliers
- Government/Regulator
- Competitor
- Partner or Shareholder

PrivateEdge FP Case Studies

Breach of Contract

An entity was sued by its former agents after it terminated their contract in order to replace them with fulltime staff. The agents sued for non-payment of commission

Misconduct

An employee was dismissed after sending a stream of offensive emails to colleagues about one of his senior managers. However the employer failed to follow proper process in dismissing the employee and the case was settled for a 5 figure sum.

Fire Safety Regulations

Directors were prosecuted by a local authority after persistently failing to comply with fire regulations. They claimed that the alterations required to be made to their premises by the local authority were unnecessary. We funded the defense of the directors and a successful outcome was achieved.
